

THE ROBINESSES REVIEW

VS.

OXFORD UNITED WFC

Thursday 12 October 2023 | 7:45pm kick-off
FA Women's National League Southern Premier

ANDY
LIDDLE
CHAIRMAN

WELCOME BACK TO KAYTE LANE FOR AN EVENING OF TOP FLIGHT FOOTBALL UNDER THE LIGHTS!

I do love these evening matches, and I'd like to start by welcoming the players, staff and fans of Oxford United who have made the short trip along the A40 tonight.

Oxford have been in the upper echelons of Tier Three for a few seasons now, narrowly missing out on promotion to the Championship last year and will provide a stern test for us this evening. They beat fellow title contenders Ipswich 2-1 at the weekend, the winner coming in the 88th minute.

Whilst the games have been coming thick and fast at this stage of the season, we do enjoy a weekend off now, before travelling to Billericay on the 22nd, and entertaining Chatham Town (formerly Gillingham Women) here on Sunday, November 5, for a 2:00pm kick-off.

We await the completion of the Qualifying Rounds to find out who we will face in the First Round Proper of the Women's FA Cup. This fixture will be played on Sunday November 12 and we encourage all supporters to keep an eye on the Club's official website - www.ctlfc.com - for further information about this fixture when the draw has been made.

Thank you all, once again, for your fantastic support this season, and I hope you all enjoy the game and have a safe journey home after.

Let's hear you Cheltenham fans!

THE ROBINESSES

MEET THE UNDER 9S

Cheltenham Town Ladies 2 Oxford United Women 1

5 February 2023 | 14:00
FA WNL Southern Premier

Cheltenham Town Ladies would open February with a bang as goals from Issy Newns and Laura Holden broke Oxford's unbeaten streak in the league.

No doubt feeling great following a 4-0 win over Billericay the previous weekend, Cheltenham came out of the blocks flying, with Newns breaking the deadlock in just 10 minutes.

The forward darted into the penalty area and beat Rose Kite in the Oxford goal. This would be the first time the visitors had conceded away from home all season.

The league leaders tested Cheltenham's defensive resolve, but the home side held strong. Oxford would startle the home side by rattling the crossbar after a well worked corner but Cheltenham would clean up in the aftermath.

Following the scare, Cheltenham would spur ahead, looking to catch Oxford on the break.

Laura Holden collected the ball on the break and unleashed an effort from long range that stranded the keeper in no-man's land as the ball sailed over and into the net to put Cheltenham two goals ahead just before half time.

Whatever was said in Oxford's dressing room clearly impacted as following the break, Watson was called into duty early. A powerful shot in the box is bound for goal, but the number one managed to tip the effort over the crossbar to safety.

Oxford would halve their deficit shortly after this as Swaby flourished on the edge of the box before unleashing a half volley. The goal saw Oxford's spirit's revitalised, but Cheltenham still had the advantage.

In the 70th minute, Oxford seemed certain they had scored. A shot from distance was cleared in front of the line, and Oxford took the ball to the halfway line, but the ref pulled the play back for a Cheltenham free-kick.

Courtney Jones put her body on the line with ten minutes to go, as she took a thunder shot to the face to protect Cheltenham's lead.

The final ten minutes were filled with Oxford pressure. The away team brought a centre-back up front and were pushing for any chance, but the Robinesses weren't giving them anything.
